

I am Enough

A Free Verse Poem Written by Lily Barksdale
3rd Grade student at Creek Bridge STEM Academy

I want to be a lawyer
But, they say I'm not powerful enough

I want to be a ballerina
But, they say I'm not graceful enough

I want to be a football player
But, they say I'm not tough enough

I want to be a teacher
But, they say I'm not smart enough

I don't have to listen to what "they say." I will follow my dreams because I am enough, and you are too!
